The Regulations set out certain information that must be included with your application to extend the minerals under the permit. Please complete the relevant checklist to ensure that you have attached this information (note: this checklist does not include information requested elsewhere in this form).

5 Additional information to accompany an application to extend minerals under a prospecting or exploration permit

- A statement of the reasons why, in the permit holder's opinion, the Minister should extend the minerals, including:
- geological evidence that supports the application;
 - details of how the permit holder proposes to prospect or explore for the additional minerals; and
 - a discussion of any proposed amendments to the current minimum work programme for the permit or the expenditure for it.

6 Additional information to accompany an application to extend minerals under a mining permit

- A statement of the reasons why, in the permit holder's opinion, the Minister should extend the minerals, including:
- geological evidence that there is a deposit of the minerals capable of being mined in the area (including maps, diagrams, cross-sections, and any other supporting evidence of the location and extent of the minerals); and
 - estimates of the mineable mineral resource, which may include:
 - inferred, indicated, and measured mineral resources; and
 - probable and proved reserves.

Details of how the permit holder proposes to mine for the additional minerals.

A discussion of any proposed amendments to the current work programme for the permit.

A discussion of any proposed change to the point of valuation for royalties payable under the permit.

SECTION 6
