

Aorere River A gold fossicking area

Part of Aorere River (15 km southwest of Collingwood) has been set aside for recreational gold mining.

The area is suitable for gold panning and sluice boxing, and mining is restricted to hand-held, non-motorised methods only. Alluvial gold is present although the concentrations are low.

More information is available from the Department of Conservation (Nelson or Hokitika).

Permit number: 42013

Owners: New Zealand Petroleum & Minerals

Location: Tasman

Operation Name: Aorere River A

Granted: 19/9/1996

Expires: 18/9/2016

Area: 9 hectares

Ministry of Economic Development

Manatū Ōhanga

NZ Petroleum & Minerals

